

W. B. Henderson, Wills' Point, Van Zandt county, was born in Cherokee county, Alabama, June 29, 1842; was educated in a county school; moved to Little Rock, Arkansas; entered the Confederate service, in April, 1861, as a private in the First Arkansas Infantry, Holmes' Brigade, Army of Northern Virginia; was afterwards attached to Govan's Brigade, Cleburne's Division, Army of Tennessee, and surrendered at Greensborough, N. C., in April, 1865; moved to Texas and settled at Mount Pleasant, Titus county, in September, 1865; subsequently moved to Van Zandt county; is a farmer by occupation; was elected to the present House, as a Democrat, by a large majority.